Post office as second-class mail matter.

For Governor of Texas:

HON. O. B. COLOQUITT.

Fort Worth's fat stock show was a big success.

A STEEL concrete company of Chicago has contracted to build a dam over the Colorado at Austin at a cost of $1,000,000.

THE friends of Judge B. H.
Green at Shiner are anxious to hear from him in regard to his candidacy for county judge.

No agreement has been yet reached between the strikers and the traction company officials at Philadelphia and the strike is still on.

Two car tenders in Galveston were arrested, charged with keeping saloon open on Sunday.
The Galveston police seem to be getting a move on them.

Uncle Joe Cannon is partly shorn of his power in Congress, but he is still speaker of the house. It is a difficult matter to unseat Joe entirely.

O. B. Colquitt, candidate for governor, is now busy shelling the woods. Gene Johnson, Davidson and Pindexter will be kept busy dodging the balls.

The gambling laws are said to be violated at Temple and Governor Campbell is said to be taking a hand at enforcing them. A request has been made for the rangers.

KING COTTON is again the center of interest, and there is likely to be another corner on the May option. The bulls and the bears are again ready to test their strength.

EX-PRESIDENT Roosevelt has returned from his long hunt in darkest Africa and will sail for New York on June 19. Then New York will wake up and put on gala attire.

Houston's crime record for the year 1910 shows 13 people killed, 11 being killed during the month of March. In this respect Houston is now ahead of San Antonio.

SAN ANTONIO is holding its own in the way of building. The contract has been let for a fifteen story building to cost $500,000.
It is new up to Houston to go this one better.

LOUISIANA is providing for statutory prohibition with the sole exception of New Orleans.
This looks very much like discrimination, and discrimination has always been pronounced unconstitutional.

SPEAKER CANNON is being rigorously set upon in the lower house of Congress. The insurgent republicans are aiding the democrats and it is predicted that Cannon's power is at an end, for which we should be duly thankful.

The murder of the Schultz family and Walter Eichmann at Houston Heights last week is one of the most horrible affairs ever perpetrated. The victim's skulls were all crushed with some heavy blunt instrument, thought to have been an axe; even the two babies were not spared. No positive clue as to the murderer or murderers has so far been discovered. A man by the name of Shemeld has been arrested on suspicion, but the evidence against him is mostly circumstantial.

District Court News:

Orders were taken Tuesday in the District Court in uncontested civil cases. Among the cases to be tried is one for divorce instituted by Anna Novak vs L. Novak, prosperous farmers residing near Mexia. Their property, which consists principally of real estate, is valued at $40,000. They were married in Fayette county in 1902 and had fifteen children.
Of these thirteen are living, the youngest being 18 years old.

E. Trautwein, mayor of Shiner, was appointed foreman of the grand jury, which is composed of the following: Louis Trautwein, John Kloppeburg, A. M.
Wiers, B. R. Braden, W. T.
Brian, Theo. Goesch, A. J. Klaus, Tate McKay, Gus Nollkammer, J. M. Hollub, C. S. Riggs and Robert Little.

The case of William Betard vs.
the San Antonio & Arkansas Pass Railway Company has been continued to the next term of the court. The jury was discharged Wednesday morning for the week, there being no other jury cases on the docket for trial this week. The grand jury returned three felony indictments Wednesday morning. Two of these are for burglary and one for theft. All are against young people. The criminal docket is set for the 21st.

The only capital cases in which a special venire has been ordered is that of the State vs. Tom Adams, a Negro charged with the murder of two other Negroes here. The case is set for the 28th and a special venire of seventy-five men ordered. —Hallettsville Herald.

fers of real estate for the last
